BLEAKLEY GIVEN WARNING

Flying Congressman Told Not to Take Any More Chances.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The interest shown by O. D. Bleakley, Republican congressman elect from Pennsylvania, in the art of airplaning is causing concern and apprehension among his colleagues.

Having made the flight from Philadelphia to Washington in safety, and at the age of sixty years having established a precedent, Mr. Bleakley, they think, should be willing to let well enough alone.

Discreetly some of his friends are presenting to the gentleman from Pennsylvania the great truth that until the question of the control of the next house is determined extreme value attaches to the life of every Republican in that body and that his daily flights constitute a cruel disregard of the public interest.

PLANS FLIGHT TO THE NORTH POLE.

New York, Nov. 28.—Captain Raoul Amundsen, discoverer of the south pole, plans to fly to the north pole in an aeroplane. He plans to sail in 1918 in a ship being built in Norway, drift as far as the ice will permit, then fly north in an aeroplane, which he will buy here.

DE FACTO FORCE DEFEATED

Mexican at Douglas, Ariz., Has Authentic Report.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 28.—Francisco Villa's forces have captured Chihuahua City and now hold that city as well as Parral, according to a statement of a Mexican here who claimed to be affiliated with the Legalistas, and to have received a message to that effect from authentic sources.

The same man said he had also received a report that Arizona, a town between Vera Cruz and Mexico City, had been captured by Legalistas and communication destroyed between the seaport and national capital. He said this news had been suppressed by Carranza censors at Vera Cruz.

Villa in Possession of Chihuahua City

(By United Press)
El Paso, Nov. 28.—United States agents have transmitted to Washington a report that they have to the effect that Villa has taken Chihuahua City and that Gen. Trevino is fleeing south in an attempt to make a junction with Gen. Murgals' column. The Carranza officials refuse to make any statement.

Chihuahua Situation Probably Halt Plans

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 28.—An official statement says that the situation at Chihuahua City where the Carranzistas and Villistas are battling is such that it will probably halt the present plans for returning more of the militia regiments to their homes. The department expected to send several regiments home this week but the officials preferred to await the outcome at Chihuahua City before proceeding with the plan. It is frankly admitted that if Villa succeeds in taking Chihuahua City there will be real trouble popping throughout northern Mexico and particularly at Juarez within a week.

Hard Pressed on all Sides by Villa Men

(By United Press)
El Paso, Nov. 28.—With 400 men from Casas Grandes and Namiqulpa, Carranza's Commander Gonzales from Juarez started this morning for Chihuahua City aboard a military train. He admitted that the troops for Gen. Trevino's relief were hard pressed on all sides by Villa. The officials refused to comment on the report that Gen. Trevino had been driven from Chihuahua City already.

CHARLES FRANCIS JOSEPH AND FAMILY

Charles Francis Joseph, new emperor of Austria-Hungary, following the death of the aged Emperor Francis Joseph, is only twenty-nine years of age. COUNT TARNOWSKI.

Is Denied Safe Conduct to United States by British.

ENVOY CASE BRINGS NEW CONTROVERSY

Washington, Nov. 28.—Another controversy between the American government and the entente allies is in prospect as a result of the refusal of the British government to grant safe conduct to Count Tarnowski, the newly appointed Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States.

In the absence of official advice on the subject, the state department was not in a position to discuss it formally or to forecast the course the government is likely to pursue.

It was made evident, however, that the unfavorable action of the British foreign office on the notice of the intention of the new ambassador to cross the Atlantic to his post came as an unpleasant surprise.

There is an absence of any precedent exactly fitting this case that requires the department to be very careful in assuming ground, and the text of the note handed Ambassador Page will be awaited before a decision as to the course to be followed is reached.

Congress will Have to Work Nights to Finish

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 28.—Early congressional arrivals predict that congress must burn the midnight oil if the labors before the coming session are to be completed before March 4. The mere routine is heavy without the added railroad legislation and the food embargo problem which will be called to the immediate attention and will be the subject of much debate.

Wall Street Denies Behind Peace Talk

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 28.—A prominent banker denies that Wall street is behind the present peace talk in America, and said that the financiers of Europe couldn't prevent war and the financiers of America are not so foolish that they have an idea they can stop it.

Big Chicago Fire Threatens the City

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A $100,000 fire in the crowded manufacturing district threatened a dozen buildings when the Rook-a-Day Paint company warehouse caught fire, explosions of oil causing the walls of the building to collapse, the firemen narrowly escaping. The fire is now under control.

Brainerd's new Swedish weekly, "The Brainerd Posten," will make its bow to the public about December 1.

Carl Bergstrom, a young newspaper man who gained his experience in Michigan, is editor and owner. He has quarters in the basement of the Ransford block, with an entrance on South Sixth street near Front street. It is to be an all Swedish paper, independent in politics. Mr. Bergstrom has been postmaster of Cuyuna for some time and is seeking a successor.

He is well pleased with prospects in Brainerd and expects to also print the magazine published by the Swedish Lutheran churches of the district designated the "Lutheranen."

EXPERTS AWAITING RESULTS OF TESTS

Washington, Nov. 28.—It will be several days before federal experts can determine whether cattle held at Kansas City have foot and mouth disease, according to a department of agriculture statement.

Inoculation tests are being made at Kansas City and here.

The department's advices covered only one suspected case of the disease, a shipment of cattle from Wauweta, Neb., to Kansas City via St. Joseph, Mo.

Other Herds Infected.

Kansas City, Nov. 28.—Symptoms of the infection for which federal and state live stock experts have quarantined the local stock yards in the fear that the illness might develop into the foot and mouth disease, have been found in two more head of cattle, Dr. James Fleming, local head of the federal bureau of animal industry, announced.

Embargo on Illinois.

St. Paul, Nov. 28.—Officials of the Union Stock Yards company at South St. Paul kept in close touch with the foot and mouth disease situation and late in the day William Magivny, president of the yard company, issued an embargo against livestock shipments from Illinois as a precautionary measure. Practically nothing comes this way from Illinois, under ordinary conditions.

SHIPPERS ATTACK RATES

Traffic League Committee Proposes New Demurrage Scale.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Protests on behalf of shippers against the proposed increased demurrage rates, suspended by the interstate commerce commission, were presented by a committee of the National Industrial Traffic league at a hearing here before Commissioner McChord.

The shippers advocated tentatively a substitute graduated demurrage scale of $1 a day for the first two days after the free period, $2 a day for the next two days and $5 a day for each day thereafter, with a requirement that the railroads raise their per diem rate of payment for cars retained by other roads than the owners and retain the rule that demurrage charges shall be suspended on days when weather prevents unloading.

St. Paul, Nov. 28.—To determine whether telephone rates in Minnesota are excessive, the state railroad and warehouse commission took steps to make a physical valuation of the principal telephone lines operating in the state, under authority given it in the law passed by the 1915 legislature. Hearings to standardize appraisal forms and to fix appraisal districts are set for Dec. 4 at the state capitol.

Chiropractic

In searching to find out how drugs act upon the body, Dr's have learned that the body acts best without the use of drugs. Medical literature teems with admissions that drugs kill more than they cure

It is an old superstition that one must take a drug for every ill, but the people are gradually breaking away from it. Have you ever stopped to think, How, and in what way, drugs can cure?

What intelligence is there in a bottle of medicine, or a box of pills? Compare them with nature. How can they possess the knowledge of building a cell in the human body? Can drugs mend broken or misplaced bones in your body?

I say emphatically NO. Nature alone with the aid of a competent Chiropractor can do such work. Investigate and be convinced.

SALVATION ARMY WORK

Described by Capt. V. J. Huffman, Head of the Local Corps, in Interesting Paper

WORK FOR GOD HERE AND NOW

Evangelistic and Rescue Work Conducted, the Practical Good Accomplished by the Army

An interesting paper read at the Ministerial Association meeting Monday morning was that of Capt. V. J. Huffman and so well did it state the cause and aims of the Salvation Army that the members of the Ministerial Association asked it be given greater publicity. The paper is printed in full:

To rightly estimate the work of the Salvation Army in the states one must look back about thirty-seven years to a little family that settled in Philadelphia, coming from England. The Shirley family were soldiers, and had moved here to make a home. Feeling the lack of God in the community and being zealous for His kingdom they began to hold meetings. After getting a number of people converted they sent to the general asking for officers. After a period of time Commissioner Ralston with six Salvation Army lassies landed in New York harbor and planted the Army's flag in American soil. From that time to the present the Army as an organization and a spiritual force has, even over the persecution from the outside and some disloyalty on the inside made advances which cannot be accounted for except through God.

The object of the Army being to proclaim salvation for all men for all sin for all time, it has adopted all legitimate means. Believing as we do that salvation is practical, we employ a practical means of presenting it, which, so to speak, brings out an object with many sides or a tree with many branches. Of these I will deal with lightly as time will not permit a thorough discussion.

As this is the dominion form, I will speak of the purely evangelistic side first. Included in these are our open-air meetings and services in our hall, and visitation of the people by the officers. Through the open air of the army many people have been blessed and helped and not a few turned from darkness to light. Just an incident at home, here. Some years ago one of our comrades received a letter from a man that had stood around our open air ring and heard her sing, when a little girl, and that had been the means of his salvation.

But with all of that the indoor meetings afford a greater opportunity of blessing, helping, encouraging, and sometimes of pointing them to a Christ that saves to the uttermost. This branch also embraces the young peoples work. It is composed of the company meeting Sunday school of the Young Peoples Legion and Life Saving Scouts and Guards, recently organized. We now have 946 corps and outposts in the United States. For the year ending Sept. 30, 1915 we conducted 198,477 meetings in our halls with an attendance of 8,169,455; and 154,319 open air meetings. During that time 52,236 people knelt at the Army penitent form and professed conversion. We held 25,481 junior meetings with an attendance of 2,274,000.

Then of the social side. This in itself has many phases. We now have 134 industrial homes, two of these being located in the Twin Cities. The object of these are to give the man down and out physically and morally a chance to climb back up the social ladder of respectability and purity. It is one of the most unique charities known as it does its work without asking the public for a cent in cash to carry on its work. It works out thus: Waste labor plus waste material equals social redemption. The paper and rags collected are sorted, baled, and sold to the mills. The clothing and furniture is sorted and repaired and distributed to stores located in poor districts, where they are sold to the poor at a very low figure. The purpose of selling these goods is two fold, to preserve the self-respect of the purchaser and to obtain funds to defray the cost of collection and distributing of the material and the housing and feeding of the unemployed.

Also there are our working-men's hotels. For 15 to 25 cents a man may obtain a private room with electric light, good clean bed and bedding with privilege of comfortable, light reading room, shower and tub baths, use of laundry tubs and dryer.

For 10 cents he can have all these privileges with a bed and locker in large dormitory. Of these there are 79 in the States.

Then there is our work among the women. We have a number of boarding homes. These are not charitable institutions but are run on a self supporting basis. The object being to give those women who are working in the large cities the advantage of a moderately cheap and yet clean, Christian home with holy influences. A girl may for from $3.50 up per week get an outside well lighted and furnished room with privileges of parlor, library and laundry, also three good meals a day.

Our rescue and maternity homes of which we have 25, with an accommodation of 1,091, in this country, one being located at the Midway, St. Paul are what the name implies, a home for the unfortunate betrayed and deserted girls; and they come feeling sure that though their old friends may have given them the "cold shoulder," though their parents may have shut the door in their faces, the Salvation Army will not fail or forsake them in their hour of dire need and sorrow. The object is not merely to temporarily assist and alleviate the suffering but to obtain the salvation of their mind, body, and soul, and restore to respectability and permanent morality. During the year ending Sept. 30, 1915 we admitted 2,309 girls and 1,419 children and passed out 2,277 girls and 1,624 children.

Our slum posts and nurseries are also a very important factor in the reclamation of the underworld. We have 16 in the United States and indeed it is an opportunity and our devoted women officers are taking every advantage of it. Their time is spent in visiting the homes, if homes they can be called, in getting acquainted with their needs and supplying it even to the scrubbing of the floor or at some times the individual. Another important branch is our children's homes. Although we have only 2 it is indeed a work of no mean dimensions. The children are given an education, reared under holy influences and given a chance to succeed in life.

Last but by no means the least is our prison work. The mission in the prison is simple, we have no new reform to advocate. It is merely to get at the source of the trouble, the hidden spring that controls the life. In the prison we have what is called the Brighter Day League. It is organized in co-operation with the prison officials. Those who join must sign a pledge to abstain from intoxicating liquors, from use of tobacco, to obey the officials and be an example to their fellow prisoners. At the time of their freedom they are given a helping hand by the army, either found employment or sent to our industrial homes. In one prison we have a corps. The warden being converted in one of the meetings conducted there, was made the officer in charge, a man serving a life sentence the sergeant-major. They also have their band, and conduct Salvation meetings for their fellow prisoners. In fact have a real Salvation Army behind grey walls.

In closing I would say that the work of the Salvation Army is to "work the works of Him that sent me while it is yet day."

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—A man as yet unidentified, crazed by a stab wound in his back, shot and seriously wounded four persons, held a crowd of 1,000, including a score of policemen, at bay and escaped several hundred bullets fired at him before he was captured.

The man drew a revolver, a few minutes after he had boarded a car bound for the navy yard. Panic-stricken, the passengers rushed for exits, some taking windows. Police reserves were called and as the man saw patrols arriving he fired at random, leaping from the deserted car and using it as a barricade.

VILLA CAPTURES CHIHUAHUA CITY

Juarez Now in Fear of Raid by Bandits.

TREVINO SAID TO BE FLEEING

Sends Word to Gonzales to Prepare for Attack Opposite El Paso—All Available Troops Are Called—Carranza Officials Are Worried.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 28.—Villa is moving northward from Chihuahua City, according to a dispatch from General Trevino received by General Gonzales at Juarez.

General Gonzales was ordered to concentrate his forces at Juarez.

A private message coming over the same route adds that not only is Villa proceeding north, but he is in control of Chihuahua City.

General Trevino, this message said, has abandoned the capital and is proceeding southward. General Trevino said that after effecting a junction with General Murguía he would return and recapture Chihuahua.

The message from General Trevino was sent in code from Santa by way of Ojinaga, opposite the Texas town of Presidio, where it was relayed.

Troops to Juarez.

It said, according to Carranza officials, that Villa was moving north and ordered the detached garrisons along this section of the frontier and on the Mexico Northwestern line to concentrate in Juarez. The message, they added, spoke of this as the fifth day of Villa's attacks.

The contentions of the civil and military men in the Juarez headquarters disclosed clearly the seriousness of the news.

It is understood there are about 500 men, most of them infantry, in or near Juarez.

Telegraphic communication was still open with Santa, about twenty-six miles above Chihuahua City, the military men said. They professed considerable anxiety about the Carranza garrison there.

General Murguía with his large forces had been expected daily to come to the rescue of the beleaguered city.

SAVE FUNDS FOR USE IN AMERICA

Federal Board Warns Bankers to Be Careful.

DANGER IN FOREIGN LOANS

Duty to Have Money for Domestic Use After War, Statement Points Out—Regarded as Answer to British Fiscal Agents.

Washington, Nov. 28.—American bankers were warned by the federal reserve board to avoid locking up their funds by purchasing treasury bills of foreign governments involving long term obligations.

While specifically disclaiming "any intention of reflecting upon the financial stability of any nation," the board advises all investors to proceed with caution and formally announces to members banks of the federal reserve system that with the liquid funds which should be available to American merchants, manufacturers and farmers in danger of being absorbed for other purposes, it "does not regard it in the interest of the country at this time that they invest in foreign treasury bills of this character."

Statement is important.

The statement is regarded in official circles as one of the most important declarations by the board since its creation. Officials would not discuss the question for publication, but some of them informally interpret the warning as the reserve board's answer to the recent proposal of J. P. Morgan & Co., British fiscal agents in this country, to have American bankers accept British treasury bills of an indefinite total issue, secured by gold reserves held in Ottawa.

Such loans would be for ninety days with the privilege of renewal for five other ninety-day periods.

H. P. Davidson of the Morgan firm was in Washington recently and conferred with President Wilson and some of the members of the reserve board.

Advices Care in Loans.

It was said later that he sought to have banks of the reserve system authorized to buy British treasury bills as if they were bills of exchange to cover commercial transportation.

Danger from further importation of large amounts of gold, the board says in its statement, will arise only in case the gold is permitted to become the basis of undesirable loan expansions and of inflation. Emphasis is laid upon the necessity for caution in putting money into investments which are short term in name but which "either by contract or through force of circumstances may in the aggregate have to be renewed until normal conditions return."

WARNING CLEARS SHIP LANES

Virtually No Foreign Traffic South of Nantucket Shoals.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The Transatlantic steamer lane south of Nantucket shoals lightship, in the vicinity of which five ships were sunk by the German submarine U-53, Oct. 8, virtually was clear of foreign traffic, according to reports received here.

This apparent abandonment of the regular route was believed to be due to wireless warnings sent out by the British cruiser Lancaster, off Sandy Hook, notifying steamer captains that German war submarines were supposed to be in this vicinity.

Incoming ships reported a rough sea that would ordinarily interfere with extensive submarine operations.

Democratic Masses Keep Sweden Out of Present War

BY WM. PHILIP SIMMS,

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Stockholm, Nov. 7 (By Mail).—Despite the fact that the Queen of Sweden is German and the Crown Princess, her daughter-in-law, is English, it is said they never have clashed over the war.

The Queen of Sweden, formerly Princess of Baden, has the reputation of being one of the most intelligent women in Sweden. From the start of the war she has been a center of pro-German sentiment. But the Crown Princess, formerly Princess Margaret of Connaught, is said to be the most tactful of women, and the combination of intelligence and tact has prevented rupture between mother-in-law and son's wife—a relation notoriously hard to maintain.

It is said here that for some weeks now the Queen is no longer as active as formerly she was reported to be. Until some three months ago she had as her right bower her kinsman, son of a daughter by morganatic marriage, Prince Douglas of Ludwig, of Bavaria, and therefore as German as she. His death was a distinct loss to pro-Germans. As Marechal of the court, his influence was great, and it was through him mostly that the Queen exerted an influence on the politics of Sweden as they bore upon the war.

The university of Upsala, oldest and most influential in the country, is another center of conservatism and pro-Germanism. This is perhaps because the University graduates belong to the "ruling classes" or nobility, and the nobility seems to see nothing menacing to itself in the destruction of the ruling nobles of Germany.

But if queen, court, army circles and the nobility or "ruling classes" of Sweden, are pro-German, why did not Sweden long ago join the war on the side of the central powers?

I asked this question of a number of men, bankers, editors and business men. Summed up the reply was this:

The bulk of the population of Sweden is democratic in the extreme. There is even a fairly strong current in Sweden favoring a republican form of government. Once a year, regularly, some one gets up in the legislature and proposes a republic. He is not howled down. He is not imprisoned for lese-majesty. To the contrary he is listened to quite as though he were proposing the building of a post office at Haparanda or increasing the tax on tobacco. A debate follows, a warm debate, various members of the body of law-makers stating their views on the subject. Then comes a vote and the republic is defeated.

This shows the absolute democracy at the bottom of Sweden. The United States, too, have some influence on the national mind, though the "ruling classes" would scarcely admit it.

"The population of Sweden outside the big cities," a Swedish editor remarked, "knows more about the United States than they do about any other country. And most of them know Chicago, Minneapolis, New York and other American cities better than they do Stockholm. The reason for this is plain. Many Swedes have gone to the United States. They have met with success there. They like the country. So they write home glowing accounts of the great country, the cities and towns, and tell the folks at home how this and that is done in the states. All this has a direct influence. It may not be pressing and aggressive, but it is constant. Sweden is sure to become a republic some day. Not because it wants to copy any other nation but because the whole tendency of democracy is in that direction and Sweden, heart and soul is democratic. I don't mean we are going to have a revolution or anything like that. Nor do I mean that we are going to become a republic next week. We will simply evolve into a republic, do it by vote of the people, by consent of the majority."

"For, believe me, the majority has its say in Sweden and perhaps that is why the Queen, exceedingly intelligent though she is, and all the court officials, nobles and 'ruling classes' have not had any great influence on placing Sweden on the side of Germany. Like the United States most Swedes do not want war. And though there was danger at one time of Sweden coming in, I believe all danger past now."

G. O. P. Spent $2,446,567.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The Republican campaign in the interest of Judge Hughes cost $2,446,567.54, according to the statement filed with the clerk of the house.

ANALYZING WOMEN'S VOTE

Why Those in the West Cast Their Ballots For Wilson, While Their Sisters in Illinois Preferred Hughes. Sutherland's Defeat a Distinct Loss to Senate—Ranks of Able Men.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 28.—[Special].—Telling how it happened continues to be the favorite amusement in Washington among the Republicans who have been coming here for the session of congress. Nearly every one can show how several small acts might have materially affected the election and instead of Wilson it would have been Hughes for the next four years. The close vote in a number of states gives them the opportunity to show these things and to complain about how the election was lost by non-activity or by mismanagement here and there.

The consensus of opinion is that these factors worked for Wilson all the time: He kept us out of war, high prices for farm products, the women vote in western suffrage states, the Mormon vote in the intermountain states and the general hesitation about making a change when the country was enjoying prosperity.

Illinois and Other Women.

Of course the question is asked, "How do you explain the vote of the women of Illinois for Hughes and of the women in other suffrage states for Wilson?"

The answer by those who have given attention to the subject is that the women of Illinois have only partial suffrage. They vote for president and some of the other offices, but none of those named in the state constitution nor for members of congress. Women of Illinois were very much impressed with the declaration by Hughes in favor of the federal constitutional amendment, as its adoption would give them the remainder of suffrage which they do not now enjoy. In the other suffrage states the women, save for a few leaders, are not particularly interested in the extension of suffrage. They do not care very much whether their eastern sisters secure it or not; they were far more interested in peace than suffrage extension.

And that is the way it is explained that the women in the suffrage states carried the country for Wilson, while Illinois voted for Hughes.

More Farms, Says Wilson.

President Wilson told the grangers there ought to be more farms and more farmers. That has a tendency to encourage the advocates of reclamation of swamp lands to greater efforts. There are 70,000,000 acres of these lands. They are the most fertile lands in the world, and they have the advantage of being near rail or river transportation to markets.

Retirement of the Justices.

During the last years of the Roosevelt administration there was talk about the retirement of Chief Justice Fuller in order that Roosevelt might name Taft for chief justice. In discussing this subject with a near relative of the chief justice one day he replied to my inquiry by saying, "God will retire him."

That same remark can be applied to Chief Justice White, Justice McKenna, Justice Holmes and Justice Day, four members of the high court whose successors may be named by President Wilson in the next four years. They will not retire, but will die in the harness, as most of their predecessors have done.

Nine Months' Pay.

The question of an extra session involves nine months' pay—nine months for one crowd or another. If it should be determined that the Republicans and Independents are to have control of the house the $300,000 in patronage will go with them. In case there is no extra session the Democrats now holding the jobs will be sure to hang on for nine months.

When President Taft called an extra session in the spring of 1911 to pass his Canadian reciprocity bill his action threw all the Republican employees of the house out of nine months' pay, which was welcome to the Democrats who took their places.

"We gained nine months' pay at that time," said one of these employees, "and it looks as if we were going to hang on for nine months next year."

Regret Loss of Sutherland.

It is evident that the Republicans regret the loss of Senator Sutherland more than any other man. Democrats, too, save for their party desires, wish that it might have been some other man than Sutherland who was defeated. The Utah senator is regarded as one of the ablest men in the senate, a man of strict integrity, gentle in manner, learned in constitutional law and precedents, singularly equipped for national service. He will be a distinct loss to the senate.

It is a curious electorate that in one state will defeat a man like Sutherland and in adjoining states choose men of small caliber.

ORE SEASON IS ABOUT CLOSED

Last Boat at Northern Pacific Dock at Head of the Lakes Loading With Ore from Croft Mine

W. H. Strachan, of Duluth, superintendent of the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific railway company, was in the city in his office car. He had just returned from a trip over the Cuyuna iron range, inspecting the railway branches to the mines.

The ore season is about over. Today the last boat is loading at the Northern Pacific dock at the head of the lakes, receiving a cargo of ore from the Croft mine at Crosby.

Mr. Strachan refused to say much about Brainerd matters. However, he did say that personally he saw no reason for opening up Fifth street through the yards of the company.

It would work a damage to the railway property and prove a great hindrance in yard work. There was no street of record through the yards and one had never been platted through the company right of way, said Mr. Strachan.

leges that from 1902 to 1912 he and Mr. Feigh were engaged in business in Duluth, were close and intimate friends, both unmarried men of past middle life, members of the same organizations, social and religious, and in close business and personal relations.

On June 3, 1905, Mr. Hammel had an exclusive option from H. B.
Blackwood to purchase the east half of the northeast quarter, lot 6, and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 9, and the south half of the northwest quarter, and the north half of the southwest quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29, for $3420, as alleged in his complaint.

Mr. Hammel alleges that a partnership agreement exists in reference to the land in question and that the property was to stand in Mr. Feigh's name, but each was to share a half in proceeds.

Marcus L. Fay then got an option for a lease, drilled for 13 months and it is alleged a large ore body was located of more than 400 feet depth.
On account of general business conditions prevailing, says the complaint Fay surrendered his lease.

In 1909 the property was optioned for a lease to the C. M. Hill Lumber Co. In 1910 the Hill Lumber Co. took it at 25 cents a ton royalty, date May 24, with a minimum of $5,000 tons the first year, $5,000 tons the second year, $5,000 tons the third year, 100,000 tons the fourth year and 150,000 tons the fifth and each year thereafter.

The Hill Lumber Co. assigned to the Cuyuna Realty Co. its interest in section 10 property, and the latter company is now engaged in active mining operations there.

On October 8, 1910, the Hill Lumber Co. leased its property in section 9 to the Hill Consolidated Mines Co.
of Saginaw, Mich.

Mr. Hammel alleges that the total amount paid out for purchase price, carrying charges, expenses and taxes and the amount paid out by plaintiff's agreement and consent for hospitals and churches does not exceed $80,- 000. Mr. Hammel believes the royalties received are largely in excess of such payments.

Mining men conversant with values on the Cuyuna range estimate the property in question to be worth $5,000,000, thus making this case recently filed in the district court, one of the most important from a monetary standpoint that the docket has ever held.

An affidavit filed following the complaint states that Mr. Feigh is a resident of Chicago and summons as served by mailing him a copy.

HARRISON SCHOOL RESUMES POSITION

Takes Place at Head of List in Point of Attendance With Whittier
a Close Second

EARNEST GRADE TEACHERS

Monthly Writeup of School Affairs Interesting to Parents as Well as Pupils and Teachers

The Harrison school once more resumes its position at the head of the list in point of attendance, with the Whittier a close second. The other grade schools appear to have a slight falling off this month over that of the previous months.

In the monthly write up of school affairs, it is quite natural that more reference is made to high school items and conditions than to matters pertaining to the grades. This is not because of the greater importance of the one over the other, or because the efforts put forth in those upper grades are superior to those in the graded school proper, but merely that the latest innovations and newer departments are apt to be centered in the junior and senior high school. The so called graded schools of any city are the foundation of the whole school system and upon the quality of the work done in the grades depend the character and success of all high school efforts. We believe that Brainerd is especially fortunate this year in having a body of earnest grade teachers who are giving their undivided efforts to prepare the children of this city for the duties and responsibilities of the future. In this effort they need the assistance of every parent who has a child in school. In order to secure the best results, parents would do well to inform teachers concerning individual peculiarities of children as to health, disposition, mental bias, and habits, with all of which elements both parents and teachers have to deal.

At the Harrison school a movement has been recently started with the school and the Parent's club, working in conjunction, to provide that school with a Victrola for educational work along graded music lines and other educational lines.
Whatever the result of this undertaking may be, the spirit aroused by children, parents and teachers working together in a common cause is bound to produce better community team work and re-act on both the home and the school beneficially. It is more than likely that in the other sections of the city principals and teachers in co-operation with the parents interested will be formulating similar projects to make their school more of a district center and add to its usefulness. The effort started last fall to beautify the school grounds at the Whittier and the movement to build up a working library or to decorate the school rooms with suitable works of art are all efforts of community cooperations and deserve to be cultivated.

This week the usual Thanksgiving offering for the benefit of the poor of the city will be taken in each of the schools and will be turned over to the Associated Charities for distribution as heretofore. In taking this Thanksgiving contribution from the children, it is hoped that pride and rivalry will not enter in, and that no child will feel called upon to out do some other child in the matter of donation. No matter how simple or inexpensive the gift may be all will be received on an equality without any conspicuous parading of the individual contributions. During the absence of a number of teachers for the Thanksgiving vacation, the Normal cadets and their Director, Mrs. Lawrence, will take charge of a number of rooms on Wednesday afternoon.

Our attention was called recently to a noticeable discrepancy between the school time and the shop time as indicated by the high school bell and the shop whistle. Greater care will be exercised from now on to see that the high school bell is regulated according to Western Union time. We shall be glad to be notified by telephone of any noticeable deviation from the above that would be apt to cause confusion on the part of parents in sending their children to school.

At the Short Course meetings last week, a selected body of students from the high school were in attendance each day at periods which did not interfere with the regular class work. On Friday morning, a group of high school students in charge of Miss Conrad gave a short program before the farmers, which program seemed to be very favorably received by the audience. Within a short time a considerable number of library books for the several schools, a larger number than heretofore, will be purchased from funds provided under the state aid law pertaining to school libraries. With the start already at each of the schools toward a school library and the addition of the new books expected shortly, with a moderate boosting each of the local centers, a good working library at each building can be assured. During the Christmas vacation, the basement quarters at the Lincoln building will be thoroughly overhauled and a thoroughly modern plumbing equipment will be installed. Mr.

Hohman and Mr. McClosky who are directly in charge of this improvement will see to it that the new quarters will be fully equal to those in any school building of the city.

Within the last month, in nearly all of the rooms of the schools, a short period of physical exercise and drill has been started in the middle of each school session.

The night school for foreigners started a few weeks since at the Harrison school has about the same enrollment and attendance as the school started years before last. The interest manifested on the part of these adult foreigners to learn the English language and to be able to read and write English is commendable and merits encouragement. The session begins at 7:30 and the first half hour in the advanced section is devoted to a talk and discussion on American Government; local, state and national. The school is open to any adult foreigners or others who may desire to get a start in reading and speaking English or to learn something of the nature of American government. Any one desiring may attend the half hour session given over to the discussion of civic matters without being called upon to remain for the class work in English.

Fresh air registers have recently been installed in the basement quarters at the high school devoted to Manual Training and to the Chemistry and Physics work. This improvement will add materially to the health and comfort of these departments.

The public is cordially invited to be present at any of the high school literary programs held on Friday afternoons during the latter part of the session. Come early and visit the classes before the program begins and if you are athletically inclined, enjoy an exciting interclass basketball game in the gymnasium, after the literary program.

The domestic arts department, after their recent sale of mince meat still has on hand a few gallons which they would like to dispose of before the Thanksgiving vacation as the proceeds will be used to buy necessary cooking utensils.

All of the schools have become much interested in the Palmer penmanship movement inaugurated some time since by a representative of the Palmer Co. All the teachers are taking a correspondence work looking toward a Palmer diploma. The Lowell school has been among the foremost in interest and enthusiasm in the good writing campaign and several of their rooms have already begun to show results.

A very enthusiastic Audubon society has been recently started in the Lowell school and its membership has been steadily growing week by week. It is quite probable that an Audubon program will be given during the winter months, and before the year is over we may expect that a knowledge of bird life as well as a knowledge of school gardening will be one of the features of interest at this school.

Hendricks was Offered the Job Tinker Had

BY HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Nov. 28.—Chicagoans came close, mightily close to having the energies of their two major league managerial or playing experience.

It was Charlie Weegham, boss of the Cub's who saved the day. His firm stand against the wishes of some of the other directors prevented the appointment of Jack Hendricks to Tinker's job last month.

Clarence "Pants" Rowland, manager of the White Sox was formerly a luminary of the Three-I league and jumped to the Sox managership without serving a player's apprenticeship in topnotch company. When Hendricks was in New York a short time ago he told the United Press that he had been offered the helm job by several directors of the National League, but was unable to take it because Weegham had declared that if Tinker left the Cubs he would leave too. Weegham, according to Hendricks, was considerably strong for Tinker, due to the fact that the latter's leap to the Feds contributed more than any one agency to putting the erstwhile outlaws on their feet. Consequently, Keegham says, Tinker will have that job as long as he is president of the Cubs.

Inasmuch as Weegham owns a preponderance of the stock and generally does about as he pleases, there is little likelihood right now that an alien voice will command the Cubs next spring. The directors are said to be still mighty strong for a change of affairs and an effort recently was made to get Jimmy Callahan. When that fell through some of the directors went after Hendricks.

Hendricks has been remarkably successful in the minors. He has been with James C. McGill, owner of the Indianapolis club, for a number of years, first getting away in mighty fine style as helmsman for the Denver Western league club, where he won three pennants. When McGill purchased the Indianapolis club Hendricks went along.

McGill always has contended that Hendricks is a major league manager and has been eager for Jack to land that kind of a job. When he heard that the Cubs were trying to take Hendricks away he made every effort to help Jack put the deal over. Recent happenings, however, indicate that Hendricks is stuck in the minors for at least one more year.

COMPANY IN REPERTOIRE

Lona Fendell Stock Company Playing a Week's Engagement at the Brainerd Opera House

The Lona Fendell stock company opened at the Brainerd opera house Sunday for a week's engagement and the repertoire of the company and the presentation of their plays is giving great satisfaction to theatre goers and as a result good houses are the rule. Popular prices prevail.

The leading lady is Miss Fendell and she has gathered about her a capable company including Dan Fendell, Harry Lee, Miss Frieda Loreane, Miss Clarence Tefft.

"Don't Lie to Your Wife" was presented Monday evening. Miss Fendell scored a success as the abused wife and Dan Fendell gave a good bit of character interpretation of Capt. Jennings, the old sea dog.

Between the acts there was singing by Miss Clarence Tefft, dancing by Miss Frieda Loreane and the Fendells in a short sketch.

Tonight "The Man of the Hour" will be presented. On Wednesday night Theda Bara's great play, "A Fool There Was" will be given. On Thanksgiving night the play is a special treat, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." The bill for Friday and Saturday will be announced later.

Real Sport at St. Paul Carnival

When the outdoor sports carnival at St. Paul opens on January 27th for a seven day pageant, more winter sports, championship events and cold weather romps will be started than were ever before held within the confines of a single municipality. Skating, skiing, hockey contests, international curling games and tobogganing will form the principal events on the program.

Over 30,000 persons are listed to participate in the parade which is scheduled for one afternoon. Already, several concerns doing business all over the northwest have organized marching clubs, included among which is the Northern Pacific marching club having 1,500 members. This organization will also be represented by a band of 30 pieces, four drum corps and a number of floats.

This is to be the second annual carnival held in St. Paul, the first having taken place last winter. Several cities in the northwest will send representatives of their commercial institutions, suitably garbed for the occasion.

GRIP TIGHTENS ON ROUMANIA

All River, From Alps to Danube, Now Under Teuton Control.

ALLIES BEATEN NEAR MONASTIR

Hard Attack Launched Along Wide Front Is Checked After Desperate Fighting—Italian Lines Are Sealed by Austrian Forces.

London, Nov. 28.—The entire Iire of the Alt river in Roumania, running north and south through the country from the Transylvanian Alps to the Danube, now is in the hands of the Teutonic allies.

In all directions the invaders are continuing to make progress, with Bucharest, their main objective, daily coming nearer.

The southern and eastern drive in the Alt region has brought the Teutonic forces across the Topolog river.

To the south, between Rochi di Vede and Valeni, their line has been drawn considerably nearer the Roumanian capital. Alexandria, forty-seven miles southeast of Bucharest, has been taken by Field Marshal von Mackensen's troops.

Considering the swiftness of the advance of the Teutonic allies through Wallachia, comparatively few prisoners have been taken.

Beaten Near Monastir.

Near Orsova twenty-eight officers and 1,200 men were made prisoner, while in the Alt region near Tigveni ten additional officers and 400 men fell into the hands of the Teutons.

In a big battle extending over a front of about seventeen miles north-west and northeast of Monastir—between Trnovo and Makovo—the entente allies, according to Berlin, have met with a severe defeat through the failure of an attack launched against the lines of the allies of the central powers.

Aside from reports of the repulse of the Bulgarians by the Serbians and of continued progress for the Italians west of Monastir, the entente allied war offices record no important engagements on the Macedonian front.

In the Carnia sector of the Austro-Italian theater and east of Gorizia the Austrians are vigorously shelling the Italians. On the Russian front there has been considerable activity by both the Russians and Germans at various points.

Comparative calm still prevails all along the front in France, so far as infantry engagements are concerned.

TREVINO SHORT OF SHELLS

Officials at Juarez Apprehensive of Artillery Supplies.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 28.—When told of the report that the Carranza forces had evacuated Chihuahua and withdrawn to the south to join Murguia's column, Andreas Garcia, inspector general of Mexican consulates, replied this was a matter on which no information had been received at Juarez.

Apprehension was expressed in the military headquarters at Juarez that the five days of fighting had seriously reduced the stores of the Chihuahua arsenal, especially in regard to shells.

The high cost of razors is given as one of the causes for the proposed boost.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
